

Guevara was sworn in as new District Director for LULAC

David Rodriquez swearing Gilbert Guevara into office.

The League of United Latin American Citizens "LULAC" held their monthly meeting last Saturday at Tomas Café in downtown Oxnard.

Gilbert Guevara was sworn in as the new District Director for Ventura County [District #17.] Mr. Guevara is replacing David Rodriquez, who currently serves as the California State Deputy Director for LULAC.

Assemblyman Pedro Nava, 35th –AD provided the members with his view of the legislature's attempts to solve the budgetary problems facing the State of California. He explained that the California Constitution demands a 2/3 majority for budget approval. "Again this year the minority republican opposition is holding the budget and the state as hostages to force their agenda, to weaken the unions, labor laws and make drastic cuts in public service," said Nava.

Assemblyman Nava went on to explain, it would take a public initiative with the approval of 2/3rds of the voting public to overturn that law. California is the one of four states in the union that the state houses have to have a super majority to approve the budget. Oddly, he explained that the public initiative Proposition 8 was able to change the California Constitution with simple majority.

Jess Ramirez, Oxnard Port Commissioner was another

guest, who gave an exciting talk about his trip with his family to Washington DC and witnessing the Inauguration of President Barack Obama. Jesse wore his "I Was There" Inaugural T-Shirt as a symbol of pride.

LULAC is a nationwide civil rights organization promoting and protecting social justice for all Americans, here in Ventura County there are five chapters and the general area wide meetings are held at 9 a.m. the first Saturday of each month.

To find out more about LULAC, visit the national website www.lulac.org, or call Jim Hensley, Deputy District Director at 805-382-7659, or email venturalulac@hotmail.com
